

Easter – It's all about The way, The Truth and The Life

Key Verse: John 14:9 "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father."

What Easter is All About....

Easter will only have an effect on our lives if _____.

Easter is _____.

How can we tap into Easter's power for our lives? _____ to Jesus and _____ what Jesus tells us to do.

Today we look further into what living an abundant life is all about – God has revealed the _____ the _____ and the _____ for our lives.

John 14:1-14

What kind of "Messiah" were the disciples looking for? A _____.

Jesus does not offer them the kind of "messiah" that they expected and he uses a very familiar form of speech to describe who he is and what he is all about. Jesus says, _____!

Who else used that kind of title in the Bible? _____.

Jesus says I AM _____.

The problem: so many are very busy following – but they aren't getting anywhere and at the end of the day that are not better off than when they started!!

How do we know that following Jesus is THE WAY that we are supposed to be going?

Jesus says I AM _____.

Life is not a bargain that we strike with God that, if we follow then God will take care of every trouble and problem that we might encounter, as if we have a "get out of jail free" card safely tucked away in our wallets.

The Truth that Jesus is simply is that we are granted a greater _____ in life that allows us to see beyond the individual circumstances of our lives.

Jesus says I AM _____.

What does the Devil desire for the church? That the Church would become a place of _____ & _____, _____ & _____.

These things lead to the _____ of the Church.

What do the disciples do when they are not doing what Jesus trained them to do? The are _____!!!

Easter is about _____,

Easter is about _____ and

Easter is about The _____.

Easter is about Jesus and what Jesus offers us today – right where we are.